Application No. 09/762,740	:	ON PETITION
Filed: June 15, 2001	:
Attorney Docket No. ROY-012	:

This is a decision on the renewed petition to revive under 37 CFR 1.137(a), filed September 24, 2012.

The petition under 37 CFR 1.137(a) is DISMISSED.

Any request for reconsideration of this decision must be submitted within TWO (2) MONTHS from the mail date of this decision. The reconsideration request should include a cover letter entitled "Renewed Petition under 37 CFR 1.137(a)". Extensions of time under 37 CFR 1.136(a) are permitted. No fee is required for a renewed petition.

The above-identified application became abandoned for failure to timely file a reply to the final Office action mailed October 20, 2008. This Office action set a shortened statutory period for reply of three (3) months. No reply having been received, the application became abandoned on January 21, 2009. The Office mailed a Notice of Abandonment on July 24, 2009. Applicant filed a petition to revive under 37 CFR 1.137(a) on July 13, 2012. However, the petition was dismissed in a decision mailed on July 23, 2012.

A grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(a) must be accompanied by: (1) the reply required to the outstanding Office action or notice, unless previously filed; (2) the petition fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(1); and (3) a showing to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to this paragraph was unavoidable; and (4) any terminal disclaimer (and fee as set forth in 37 CFR 1.20(d)) required by 37 CFR 1.137(d). The instant petition lacks item (3).

Decisions on reviving abandoned applications on the basis of "unavoidable" delay have adopted the reasonably prudent person standard in determining if the delay was unavoidable: "The word 'unavoidable' ... is applicable to ordinary human affairs, and requires no more or greater care or diligence than is generally used and observed by prudent and careful men in relation to their most important business."<sup>1</sup>

With the instant renewed petition, petitioner repeats the argument made with his previously filed petition, namely that he did not appreciate that by not responding to the October 20, 2008 Office action, the instant application would become abandoned and there would be no continuity between it and the subsequently filed divisional application, application No. 13/486,520, filed June 1, 2012.

Petitioner's argument has been considered, but is not persuasive. Delay resulting from the lack of knowledge or improper application of the patent statutes, rules of practice or the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure does not constitute "unavoidable" delay. This is true even when applicant is not represented by a registered attorney or agent.

Petitioner is recommended to revive the application by filing a petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b) on the basis of unintentional delay. A grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b) must be accompanied by (1) The reply required to the outstanding Office action or notice, unless previously filed; (2) The petition fee as set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(m); and (3) A
